

Hello friends of Savoy,

Only a few more months and Savoy will once again be presenting a delightful Operetta by Gilbert and Sullivan. “Ruddygore”, a title that shocked London in 1887, will be performed April 3-6 at the Algonquin Commons Theatre.

Excitement and anticipation surrounds us as we launch ticket sales! Just in time for gift giving!

Tickets available in person at the Algonquin Commons Theatre Box Office in E104, (tickets are plus HST and facility fee when purchased at the Box Office). Tickets are also available online through Ticketfly or Facebook, (tickets are plus HST, facility fee, and service charges when purchased online).

Savoy will showcase the result of a variety of talent and hard work that comes from a very dedicated artistic and production team, cast and community volunteers.

You too can be a partner to keep this form of entertainment alive. It is important to keep supporting us so that we can always be there. Think of what your contribution means to Savoy. Through our productions, we hope to continue to benefit our community .You can inspire young musicians and singers and help us to support a local charity.

You could make a statement and become a member. Support our G&S Society,

If you prefer, you could send us a donation. Any amount is the right amount!

Purchase a ticket or 2, enjoy the performance, be part of our audience .....We would love to have you there!

Your contribution will help to make our next Gilbert and Sullivan production a reality. We are committed to producing high quality theatre, for your enjoyment. We thank you for your support!

Penny Mapleston, President, Savoy Society of Ottawa

“The army of Gilbertians and Sullivanites is possibly not the levee en masse that it once was; nevertheless, its ranks are still serried and its colors still draw recruits”

Deems Taylor